A GROUP INVENTORY: IS IT TIME TO DO IT?

(See AI-Anon Guidelines: G8a & G8b)

- When was your group's last inventory? Before the COVID-19 pandemic?
- Does your group need to add a Tech Coordinator to its service positions?
- How does your group welcome newcomers and encourage them to return?
- Does your group keep meetings "fresh"? Invite speakers? Try new formats?
- Does your group encourage personal sponsorship and service sponsorship?
- Does your group have meetings on Traditions and Concepts?
- How does your group handle dominance, gossip, religion, outside issues?
- Does your group handle conflict through application of Traditions?
- Does your group encourage use of the AI-Anon/Alateen Service Manual?
- Does your group's business meeting encourage participation by all members?
- Would it help to invite a DR or other person outside your group to lead inventory?

LITERATURE COORDINATOR CORNER

This month we begin a new monthly feature by Claudia W, AISDV's Literature Coordinator. Claudia's homegroup is Sunday Nighters AFG in District 1. Thank you Claudia for your contribution to RAP! ....Editor

The Al-Anon Family Groups has free downloads for Al-Anon and Alateen members. There is a variety of bookmarks, pamphlets, fact sheets, check lists and an annual magazine. <https://al-anon.org/for-members/members-resources/literature/downloadable-items/>.

One pamphlet, "Al-Anon: Then and Now, A Brief History" (AR-2) caught my eye. It was short, 6 pages that fold into a pamphlet. I had heard much of what it talked about before, but never in such a succinct manner. The timeline I came away with is as follows, in brief:

- As early as 1939, Al-Anon had an informal beginning, as wives and other family members attended AA meetings with the alcoholic loved ones.
- Later, in the 1950's, family groups had formed, and an office providing support for these families was created in New York City.
- In 1955, literature aimed at recovery for families were created. The Al-Anon Family Groups was the first hardcover book published.
- The first Alateen group was started in California in 1957.
- In 1964, Al-Anon World Service Conference (WSC) was voted as a permanent structure of Al-Anon to reach a wider group conscience.
- The International Coordination Committee was formed in 1978. One hundred and thirty countries now participate in Al-Anon.

Just think, the Al-Anon we know today, where people from all walks of life are welcome, started with a few wives turning to each other for support as their husbands met in an AA meeting. Now, family and friends reach out to each other, and this is happening internationally! (Historical resources are listed at the end of the pamphlet.)

This Month's Step, Tradition, and Concept

Step 5 Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

Tradition 5 Each Al-Anon Family Group has but one purpose: to help families of alcoholics. We do this by practicing the Twelve Steps of AA ourselves, by encouraging and understanding our alcoholic relative, and by welcoming and giving comfort to families of alcoholics.

Concept 5 The rights of appeal and petition protect minorities and insure that they be heard.
